INITIATION OF HOME ECONOMIC CLUB GIRLS

Wednesday, October 3, an initiation was held for thirty-one new girls in the Home Economics Club. In the darkened living-dining room, girls gathered for a very effective candle-lighting ceremony. After the ceremony the girls were given ribbons in the club colors, yellow and white, and repeated a pledge to the club and school. A song was sung and announcements were made concerning future meetings.

Much interest has been shown in the Club work for the coming year, and we hope to do much beneficial work in co-operation with the Department.

ATTENDING A. C. C.

With a few students yet to matriculate, Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, entered the fifth week of its thirtieth session Monday, October 7, with more students than ever before in the history of the school. Six hundred one students had enrolled in the college department with seven hundred forty-seven registered in all departments including elementary grades, junior high school, and high school.

Different students in college call seventeen states, the District of Columbia, and Canada home. An analysis of the enrollment shows that 61 elementary students, 85 junior high school and high school students have enrolled and that 269 of the 601 college students are freshmen.

Among those enrolled in the college are Billie Birdwell, Marjorie Hays, and Mary Louise Reynolds of Hamlin.

CHEVROLET NEW RADIO PROGRAM BEGINS OCT. 19

A new all-star Chevrolet program featuring Rubinoff and his violin with his 30-piece orchestra, Virginia Rae, popular Soprano, Jan Pearce, tenor, and Graham McNamee will be heard over an NBC-WEAF network beginning Saturday, October 19.

The new weekly series will be heard each Saturday night at 9:00 o'clock Eastern Standard Time.

While Rubinoff has been one of radio's most popular instrumentalists on the air and the screen and in theaters for the last five years, this will be the first time that he has been starred in his own right. One of the best known figures of the entertainment world, he has appeared in practically every theater in the country in person as well as on the screen. In addition to numerous short subjects, he has just finished a featured role in "Thanks a Million" now in the process of release.

Virginia Rae and Jan Pearce will co-star as the featured singers of the new program. Miss Rae is one of the most popular sopranos of the air whose following has been constant since the early days of radio. Jan Pearce, sensational Pacific coast tenor, who was brought to New York this year as an NBC star, has a national following.

McNamee, whose name is synonymous with radio, is not only one of the most colorful figures and greatest of air reporters, but is recognized as one of the leading air salesmen, in which role he will be heard on the new Chevrolet program.

PRESTON PHENIX DIED MONDAY

One of Hamlin's honored and useful citizens, Preston Phenix, passed away at the Baptist Hospital in Abilene, Monday, Oct. 7, at noon, after a short illness following one minor and one major operation, a week or more previous.

At the time of death Mr. Phenix had reached the age of 78 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Preston Phenix was born, February 19, 1857, at Troy, Pike County, Alabama, and in early manhood came to Texas in 1888. He was married to Miss Tabitha Donelson on December 5, 1898, and to this union there were born eight children. One son died July 10, 1917, a short while after the family became citizens of Hamlin. The companion and the following children survive. Carl Phenix of Hamlin; Holman Phenix of Anson; Ward Phenix of Wichita Falls; Misses Ruby and Hortense Phenix of Hamlin and Preston Phenix, Jr., of Washington City. All of the family were present for the funeral.

Mr. Phenix spent a larger part of his life in Mitchell County where he was prominent as a stockman, director of a bank, county commissioner, and for twelve years a member of the school board at Westbrook, Texas. In 1916 the family came to Hamlin where Mr. Phenix became one of the leading spirits in the management of the Nazarene College at this place.

At the age of 19 he was converted and joined the Methodist Church South and carried on a leading part in the church and filled all the positions with honor that a layman could hold. Changing in 1916 to the Nazarene Church, his zeal and loyalty was continued and as far as his means and time would permit he gave liberally to the ongoing of that organization.

The last few months of Mr. Phenix's life, he realized his condition and while everything was done for him that could be done, he endured his suffering in a spirit of patience and resignation.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church, Wednesday afternoon, and the pastors of the Nazarene Church, Baptist Church, Methodist Church, and Rev. Hardy of the Anson Methodist Church, all had a part in the services, paying an unusually beautiful tribute to the man who had lived and wrought among them for all things he deemed for the betterment of his church and community. A large number of friends of the deceased and of the family were present, not only from the immediate community, but from Anson, Stamford, Westbrook, Colorado and other places. The floral offerings were from sorrowing hearts to speak their esteem for one who had lived a noble life before them.

The Flower Girls were:

Misses Loreda and Vera Sloan, Mildred Phelps and Johnnie F. Smith, all of Stamford; Miss Mildred Cross and Mrs. N. F. Touchstone of Anson; Misses Kathryn Adkins, Peggy Knight, Geneva Brown, Chessie Westbrook and Geraldine Whitaker, of Hamlin.

Active Pall Bearers were:

Messrs. Ted Russell, Tate May, Joe McCrary, Tarlton Willingham, Denman Morgan, Roy McCoy, Ewing Smith, of Hamlin and Supt. E. M. Connell of Anson.

Honorary Pall Bearers:

Supt. C. C. Green, D. C. Gibson, Bowen Pope, J. A. Young, Mr. Finley, J. R. Rimmer, P. E. Smith, J. P. McClung, Harrison Feagan and W. W. Collier, all of Hamlin; Melvin Doen, of Colorado; W. M. Flannigan of Sweetwater, Wiley Copeland of Stamford, John Graves and Ed Lynn, of Anson.

The body was in charge of the Maples Funeral Home and was placed to rest in Hamlin East Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reynolds went to Dallas Tuesday to do the markets for fall and winter goods.

Mrs. J. C. Bledsoe returned Wednesday from Abilene, where she had visited her daughter, Mrs. Davis.

A Timely Drink

How is your timing? The importance of timing is becoming more and more evident in modern life. In the ring, the skillful fighter is one who times his punches. In the theater, the outstanding actor times his emotional responses. Much of the art of a really great actress is said to hinge on her precise timing.

The good hostess is a good timer—in both senses of the word. She serves the right thing at the right time, she provides the right fun at the right time—and "a good time is had by all."

Time For Grapefruit Juice!

For this reason grapefruit juice is proving itself to be the timely drink. It is a drink that is good at all times, and the result is that this year the canning pack of grapefruit juice is the largest ever. It runs into millions of cases.

It is timely for a breakfast drink to start the day with a tang. Served just as it comes from the can, in a frosty cold glass, it is exhilarating. It is timely for a luncheon drink to stimulate the appetite. For dinner, its piquant taste makes it excellent for cocktails, sherbets and mixed fruit ices of various kinds.

For Parties—Perfect!

Between meals, for casual little parties that call for a drink and a bite, grapefruit cocktails are timed with the precision of a Roxy chorus. They're there! Learn to shake up a variety of these delightful drinks and be a good merry-maker. Here are some suggestions:

Grapefruit Fizz: Boil one-half cup sugar with two cups water for five minutes to make a simple syrup. Cool, add the contents of one No. 2 can of pineapple juice, one No. 2 can of grapefruit juice and one-fourth cup lemon juice. Chill thoroughly. Just before serving add one quart of ginger ale. Pour over cracked ice in tall beverage glasses. This fills nine tall glasses.

Grapefruit and Orangeade: Boil one-half cup sugar with one-half cup water for five minutes. Cool, add the contents of one No. 2 can of grapefruit juice, one-fourth cup lemon juice and two cups of orange juice. Chill thoroughly. Pour over cracked ice in tall beverage glasses. This fills four glasses.

Raspberry Julep: Boil one-half cup sugar with one-half cup water for five minutes. Cool, add the contents of one No. 2 can of grapefruit juice, one-fourth cup lemon juice and three-fourths cup of sweetened raspberry juice (or syrup from canned raspberries). Chill thoroughly. Pour over cracked ice in tall beverage glasses. This fills six glasses.

Grapefruit Sherbet: Soak one tablespoon gelatin in one-fourth cup cold water; dissolve the gelatin and three-fourths cup sugar in one cup boiling water. Cool. Add the contents of one No. 2 can of grapefruit juice. Freeze to mush in an ice-cream freezer or in the trays of an automatic refrigerator. Fold in one beaten egg white and continue freezing until firm. This serves eight persons.

Grapefruit Ice Cubes: Pour the contents of one No. 2 can of grapefruit juice into the ice cube compartments of an automatic refrigerator. When completely frozen, unmold and serve in ice tea or ginger ale. These fruit juice cubes take the place of ice lemon and sugar. Color with strawberry or raspberry ice.

Get rid of constipation by taking Black-Draught as soon as you notice that bowel activity has slowed up or you begin to feel sluggish. ## 'G-MEN' OF HEATING WAGE WAR ON COLDS

America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold, is about to be put on the spot. The heat is to be turned on and this rampaging foe of mankind, recognized as the most vicious and destructive of all diseases, is finally to be "taken for a ride" by none other than the G-men, in this case the gas men.

Starting in today's issue of the Herald, the Community Natural Gas Company is launching one of the most intensive campaigns ever devised to teach people how to properly heat their homes in order to protect their health. They have declared war against the disease germs that lurk in cold hallways and unheated rooms. Backed by medical authorities they state that the family which huddles in one room over an open flame heater with the windows tightly closed is inviting disaster. An even heat throughout the entire house is said to be one of the best protections against colds, while to pass from a hot room into a cold hallway is an invitation for the deadly cold and pneumonia germs to strike.

The common cold is costing the American public hundreds of millions of dollars yearly and doctors have found that one of the most fertile breeding grounds for this germ is the stuffy, overheated, poorly ventilated room. It is for this reason that the gas company, according to its officials, is taking the lead in public education to reduce the ravages of colds, pneumonia and similar diseases by instructing the public in the proper methods of heating their homes.

With newspaper advertisements, booklets and information of all kinds, the bombardment is to continue through the heating season. Doctors, scientists, heating engineers, ventilating experts, public authorities, newspapers, and others have been enlisted for the war.

Byrd Cows at National Dairy Show

It was 60 degrees below zero outside when this picture was taken in the cow barn at Little America—120 degrees colder than it was in St. Louis when the Byrd expedition Guernseys and their herdsman, Edgar J. Cox, arrived for the National Dairy Show.

ST. LOUIS—The world's first and only Antarctic dairy herd holds the spotlight at the 1935 National Dairy Show.

The Byrd expedition's two hardy Guernsey cows and the young bull, Klondike Iceberg, born in the South Sea ice packs, are here with Edgar J. Cox, Byrd herdsman and ship's carpenter. With them is a quarter-size model of the barn used at Little America.

Cox's dramatic story of how he brought the animals through an Antarctic winter suggests that his pride is divided between the Guernseys and the barn he built to protect them from 70 degrees-below-zero cold.

One Quart a Man

As an ex-farmer he enjoys telling how the cows furnished a quart of fresh milk a day for every man at Little America, although many dairymen said cows could not survive. He smiles when small boys try to feed young Iceberg a fistful of grass, a food the little bull never saw until it was over a year old.

With some diffidence, he admits he helped convince leaders of the expedition that cows could be wintered in the Antarctic and tells how the fresh milk supply bolstered Admiral Byrd's impaired health after his solitary vigil at the expedition's advance weather base.

As a builder, Cox is prouder of his barn than he would be of a mansion. Built in the Jacob Ruppert's hold during the voyage to Little America, the barn afforded the cows greater protection than Admiral Byrd had in his special hut at the advance weather base, according to Cox.

"Barn Best Building"
Speaking of the barn, he says—"The barn was the only building at Little America in which there was no trouble with moisture on the walls and ceiling. Two layers of Celotex insulation enabled us to maintain temperatures 60 degrees or more above that of the outside air. When it was 30-below outside, it was about 30 above inside the barn. When the temperature dropped to 70 below outdoors, it was 10 above, or a trifle less, inside."

Cox believes his experience in handling cows under Antarctic conditions has provided valuable information on wintering dairy herds in this country, and on methods of insulating dairy barns.

THE DALLAS NEWS

FIFTY YEARS IN TEXAS

The Herald is in possession of one of the most remarkable "Special Editions" of any Texas newspaper we have had the pleasure of seeing. It is the Fiftieth Anniversary number of the Dallas Morning News. Forty-five years ago the editor of the Hamlin Herald arrived in Texas and the Dallas Morning News was then in its infancy. The Dallas News was the second semi-weekly and the first daily newspaper we ever read.

The progress that the Dallas News has made and accomplished in Texas, and for Texas, merits for that paper a first position among the great newspapers of the South. The progress of Texas has been the pride of the Dallas News all these years. Her days of greater usefulness have just started, and with hundreds of thousands of other "adopted" sons of Texas, we extend to the Dallas News our deepest appreciation and congratulations.

ANOTHER PAPER REACHES FIFTY-ONE YEARS

Just as the South congratulates the Dallas News on reaching its Fifty years, we find our neighbor paper, the Albany News, also celebrating its first 51 years. The Albany News has been under the able piloting of Col. Dick McCarty since 1915, but the past four years Chas. A. Fryar has had charge of the News and has continued the high standards set by Col. Dick.

Like any other good small town paper, the Albany News has kept her weekly files up, and what a wonderful history they contain. Dating back 51 years finds Shackelford County on the edge of "settlement", and each week the doings of her people are carefully recorded.

VEGETABLE POWDERS

It may not be long before we are eating vegetables in powder form, if experiments conducted by members of the American Chemical Society become common. It is claimed that certain vegetables, such as spinach, lettuce, celery, carrots, tomatoes and oranges can be successfully dehydrated, stored and economically transported, and 180 pounds of dried material is equivalent to approximately one ton of fresh vegetables.

The powder is said to be easily digested and may be taken by those whose systems cannot tolerate ordinary fibrous vegetables.

August business reports, coupled with some for the first half of September, are encouraging. Industrial operations, on the average, have made more than usual seasonal gains. Substantial advances have been made in the number of replacement and improvement programs inaugurated by large industries. Biggest item in this field is the $50,000,000 General Motors is to spend during the next eighteen months.—INDUSTRIAL NEWS.

MRS. LEE HAS ACHIEVEMENT DAY PROGRAM

"I gave away 32 gallons of English peas besides canning 162 No. 2 cans for family use and had all the family could use fresh," said Mrs. Carol Lee to the ladies who came to her home on Achievement Day to view her pantry.

Mrs. Lee accepted the position as first year pantry demonstrator of the McCaulley club late this spring. She has cleaned and refinished the inside of the cellar making the shelves from lumber formerly in an old house. Fresh onions, radishes, squash, turnips, rape, and tomatoes for family use are being used daily from her fall garden, also there are late watermelons and musk melons.

SHARING RICHES OF THE SPIRIT

No matter how far America may go in efforts to secure a fairer distribution of material income we shall still never be a really wealthy people until there is a fairer distribution of those richer treasures of the mind and the soul—a love of all that is beautiful in art, nature, music, literature, play, and in noble conduct and spiritual aspiration. Here indeed is an opportunity for a "share-the-wealth" program that will impoverish no one and enrich untold millions. We are sorry for every financially poor man. We are equally sorry for every intellectually or spiritually poor man. Hence as schools open again we commend to all parents and teachers a sentence we have often quoted: "A boy or girl who likes a beautiful picture, a sunset, a rosebush, a robin, a sky full of stars, a fine old melody, a courtesy, a generous deed, or a good book, is better educated than a boy or girl could be without them, even if he could work all the sums in the algebra and parse everything in Vergil. — The Progressive Farmer.

NEIGHBORLINESS

Mrs. Schwartz, who had a soft heart when it came to animals, had been feeding a stray cat all winter. Each day it came to her back door, and she always had some scraps of food ready for it. Late in the spring Mrs. Schwartz was invited to her sister's for a week-end. She was bothered as what to do about her cat, until finally she hit upon a bright idea. She left the following note under her neighbor's door:

"Dear Mrs. Samuels: Would you please put out a little food each day for the cat I've been feeding. It will eat almost anything, but don't put yourself out."

OLE DOC PEP IS HERE AGAIN

Yes, you guessed it, "Ole Doc Pep" is none other than the Pep Squad. The thing that puts pep and life into every game and makes those football players feel great, win or lose. Just give those players a good dose of yelling and watch the home town win.

The Squad has been busy learning the new songs and yells for this football season. Boy, oh boy, but they are peppy, but the main trouble in your squad is there aren't enough boys to yell. You know how most girls are about yelling. They are afraid to yell because it might strain their vocal chords or something. Anyway, they don't do anything but sing. BUT! you just watch those Pep Squad yell leaders, Ann Ferguson and "Red" Watson take that out of them. We expect to have a great Pep Squad soon and when we do, "just watch our smoke."

The girls have decided to wear green and white dresses this year and the boys are going to wear green trousers and white shirts and may be a green slip-on sweater with a white "H" on it. When you go to a football game and see a squad dressed in green and white, come over and help us yell. You may have a sore, dry throat when it's over but just look at the fun you get in helping the team win. We are planning on going to Roby with the team Friday and if we do, "just watch our team win."

SOPHOMORE NEWS

If the Sophomore class report for this week could be put into a story, there would be many things that would be of interest to the readers. Then perhaps the climax would make the most interesting reading if it was something like this, "and the Sophomores discovered that there were among them a few who possess an ability to conduct the most important business adventures through any depression." That seemed like a fairy tale but it is true according to the cake sale that was held Saturday.

The cake sale was the first attempt to be made to finance the Sophomore class this year, and it was a tremendous success. We have as a result quite a sum of money to invest in some way or another.

The fact that Clifford Reynolds made a very good cashier would be another interesting point for our story. He, with the help of other members, pushed the project on to an outstanding undertaking. Robert Fowler, Patsy O'Donnell, Leta B. White, Phyllis Milsap, Jane Howard, Jane Bailey, Fay LaVerne Howard, Marie Akers, and many others made the duties less tiresome by helping in anyway they could. Our chief means of advertisements originated with the comical Billy Fomby and Thomas Williams who paraded up and down the street, decorated in our class colors, black and yellow. It seems that they attracted much attention and caused many laughs.

We wish to extend to Mr. Owens, the Wilson Hardware, and Mrs. Pat O'Donnell, our appreciation for their services which were very important to us. We wish also to thank those who helped to furnish the booth and those who took part in the buying of that that was for sale. It is to you that we owe all that might have been accomplished.

When entertainment is concerned in class meeting, the meetings are turned into auction sales and the highest bidder wins. Well, last week the picnic won, so last Monday we all paid for a very enjoyable picnic. Some forty or fifty pupils met at the High School Building before leaving for the River. The supper was spread in the middle of the river bed before the lights of the cars. It was rather dusty but regardless of the sand everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

We divided into different groups and while one group enjoyed foot races and broad jumps another sang songs or discussed the interesting topics of the day. We returned home about eight o'clock with sand in our shoes.

SCHOLARSHIP OFFERED AT TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Oct. 9.—La Verne Noyes scholarships have been issued to four students at Texas Technological college. They are Patricia Patterson, Lockney; Bonnie Belle Lyle, Sudan; and Roberta George and Maude Speight of Lubbock. All are freshmen except Miss Lyle, who is a sophomore.

Twenty scholarships, each paying the tuition fee of $50, were made available last spring to prospective Tech students who are sons and daughters of World War veterans. The scholarships are granted from the La Verne Noyes estate in Chicago, and this is the first year Tech has been authorized to offer them. Anyone interested in these scholarships should communicate with Pres. Bradford Knapp.

CREATING BEAUTY OUTSIDE

"Beauty Outside" was our program at Mrs. Jerry Crowley's when Swedenia H. D. Club met October 1.

After our opening song, "Look for the Beautiful" which is our club song, we answered roll call with "A Shrub That Will Grow In Fisher County."

PROGRAM:

"Convenience and Simplicity"—Mrs. E. R. Rector.

"Seven Keys to Attractiveness"—Miss Gertie Young.

"Getting Character in Planting"—Open discussion.

"Bulbs and Their Care"—Mrs. J. H. McKay.

"Gardens and Outdoor Living Rooms"—Discussion. Lilac, Salt Cedar, Vetex, Althea, Flowering Willow, California Privet, Bush Plum, Butterfly Bush, and others. Native shrubs are: first of all our beloved tree or shrub: Bear Grass, Chaparral, Chittum, Wild Plum, Cedar and Aljarita Berry.

In planting our rural homes, not so much money is needed. Keep any native plant that are already there, if not really in the way. Never plant your trees or shrubs in straight lines. Keep the front yard for a lawn to help frame the picture of the house. If you can, have a side entrance leaving a larger space in front for lawn.

Let walks and drives go somewhere. Walks don't really need borders of flowers to accent them. Gravel, cinders or flat stones make good walks for rural homes. If house is unfenced it will appear more spacious and more freedom. Don't cut your front view off with a high hedge. If you have trees in the front, let them be high branched on this account. Plant plenty of trees at the sides and back of house. Let the view of the barns and out buildings be hid by trees and shrubs or hedges. Native trees to plant are cottonwood, hackberry, chittum, and mesquite. You can make a wind break of mesquites if you plant them close and cut back low.

Your orchard, vegetable and rose gardens should be at one side and the back. Have lilly pools, bird bath, rockeries, seats, tables, sand piles, pergolas, etc., around or near your living room (out door). Keep all

On top of the outbursts by Long and Coughlin and the serious testimony by Governor Eccles comes Senator Nye the North Dakota progressive, with a bill in the senate to create a central bank. Senator Nye's action has caused many humorous expressions. Here we have a senator who has fostered, even boasted about, progressive ideas and has called himself a liberal. It is necessary only to recall that the father of the central bank idea was the ultra-conservative Alexander Hamilton, the first secretary of the treasury.

Senator Nye advances a bill with the thought that the central bank would avoid hamstringing of credit. I think financial experts all agree that this is true. The thing which Senator Nye overlooked, however, is that Mr. Hamilton's central bank collapsed and brought ruin and grief to thousands. The reason it collapsed was because in removing control of the banking facilities from experienced bankers, the whole thing had been turned over to the control of politicians who, generally speaking, are experienced only in politics. It seems paradoxical that the North Dakota senator should advance as a liberal scheme the creation of a central bank which one hundred and fifty years ago represented the height of conservatism.

The Nye legislation was offered in the same week that Governor Eccles had proposed in his testimony on the banking bill in the house that the Federal Reserve board should have complete control of the credit expansion and contraction in this country. I believe most persons will have difficulty in considering the two schemes as separate and distinct.

It is to be noted that there are at least ninety-nine radical members of the house of representatives who are convinced that the federal reserve system has failed of its purposes. Most of them have been repeating without rhyme or reason the accusation that bankers are "refusing" to make loans. They think, therefore, that if there is a central bank or if credit control is placed in the reserve board and taken away from the federal reserve banks where it now reposes there will be additional loans forced out of the commercial banks. History indicates, however, that this is fallacious. No business is going to borrow money when it doesn't need it and neither is any person in his right mind going to make a loan unless he has at least reasonable assurances of repayment.

It will be recalled that President Roosevelt at one time spoke disparagingly of the "refusal" of the bankers to make loans. The President subsequently learned that attempts to pump money out of banks must fail for lack of borrowers. I think everyone acquainted with conditions must agree that the Eccles idea and the Nye legislation mean absolutely nothing in the way of recovery aids, for it has always been true, you can lead a horse to water but you cannot make him drink.

The fallacies being put forward by Senator Long and Father Coughlin, and now being nibbled at by Governor Eccles and Senator Nye obviously have been accepted by thousands of people. Senator Long claims that at least six million persons are supporting his scheme. It would seem to be the time, therefore, for citizens to begin to analyze the trend of events, if they are influenced by such leadership.

In connection with this trend, it is interesting to observe how much trouble Senator Long and Father Coughlin already have caused for the administration. It must be said frankly, Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers thus far have not found a way to deal with it. They have tried fighting back and each time they have succeeded only in furnishing fresh ammunition for the Long-Coughlin team. Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leader in the senate, made one of his greatest speeches of criticism of Senator Long's schemes, but the result was only a fresh outburst by the Louisiana senator who took Senator Robinson's own words and converted them to his use. I reported to you previously that the administration had prepared at one time to take action against Senator Long on income tax questions. But apparently the powers that be have decided that such a course, instead of putting Long back in his place, would make a martyr of him. Among the observers here the belief prevails that the only way Long's attacks can be stopped and his tactics broken up is by ridicule. No politician, however thick-skinned, can stand being made the butt of jokes.

The administration has told congress that it wants to keep the NRA. Through Donald R. Richberg, sometimes called the assistant president, the administration's position was laid before the senate committee on finance the other day with the suggestion that the proposed new NRA should be confined to matters of interstate commerce. That is, the administration proposes that in extending the NRA for two years from the coming June 16 expiration date, it would apply only to industry engaged in lines of commerce and endeavor that carries across state lines. By the same token, the proposal would eliminate the codes of fair practices from application to the so-called service industry and could not, therefore, apply even to hours and wages in those local plants now under codes.

Mr. Richberg's statement immediately provoked discussion which certainly can be expected to increase in volume because it is in the nature of protests from those who claim to speak for labor. Sidney Hillman, of the NRA high command, immediately protested as did William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor. Each of these individuals contended that the NRA would be a worse failure than it

A VISIT TO THE BELGIAN QUEEN

TEN women physicians, from as many countries met in Belgium for a conclave. Among them was a friend of mine from Iowa. It had been arranged for them to meet the Belgian queen. When the appointed hour came they were ushered into a long salon of the palace, to await her majesty. Much excited were these visitors, no one of whom had ever before seen a queen. Most of them were able to speak English, although some brokenly. The question on the lips of each was, womanlike, "How will the queen be dressed?" "Will she wear a velvet gown, have jewels in her hair; will she be tall and queenly?" These subdued conjectures stopped as the attendant asked the physicians to form in line to meet the queen. Immediately the queen was announced and her majesty came smilingly into the room.

Extending her hand to the first visitor, she said, "So your home is in England, I love the English resorts, we play over there whenever we can." The next physician in line had come from France, and the queen in passing told her of her recent visit to Paris. The American physician stood third; to her the queen expressed her gratitude for the wonderful horses Iowa had sent to Belgium in the past. Thus through the line she went, until she had spoken personally with each one.

After she had gone, the women looked their complete satisfaction, "a real queen" they voiced in unison. "What kindly eyes she had," said one. "Her low well modulated voice I shall never forget." "Her handclasp was firm but so gentle." Said another, "She seemed sincerely glad to meet us, she had a personal word for each." Suddenly some one asked, "How was the queen dressed?" The ten women recalled only with difficulty, for jewels, or lack of them passed unnoticed, when they looked into her eyes.

Thus this gift, for it is the greatest of life, can be a part of everyone who genuinely desires it. It is not alone the attribute of queens, though it be a queenly trait. Personality cannot be taught in six lessons as I saw recently advertised in a weekly magazine. It comes from the heart, it must be lived years before it becomes one's whole being.

The queen had put her queenly adornments within her heart instead of upon her head. Her crown of jewels was an understanding heart. Is this not within the reach of each one of us?

PROGRESSIVE LIVING

THE word progressive comes to us from the Latin word "progressus," meaning to move forward. Progressive living means forward, not faster living. One scientist believes that we, in America, have lived about 100 normal years in the last 25.

There is no doubt about the speed of our modern living when airplanes, through blizzards, carry mail 220 miles per hour, when 1,500 cigarettes are made by one machine in one minute (and consumed as rapidly), when great turbines equal in strength 200,000 man power, and the Century of Progress was lighted by a star forty light years distant. Make it seem when we, sitting in our homes, can hear the President's voice from the White House in Washington, or listen to the Christmas mass at midnight broadcast from La-Madeleine in Paris. What an amazing, intriguing old world! We are going fast, but where?

In Indianapolis there is a great speedway. Automobiles have sped around its track at 120 miles an hour, but when they finished they were where they began, for they had been racing in circles. In the hurry-scurry we call modern life, do we ever stop to ascertain whether we are racing in circles or going forward to higher planes of living, and thinking? Civilization means intellectual, moral and spiritual progress. With all due attention paid to diets and physical exercise over the radio daily, one would think we were living physically in a health age on the planet, but when we see the large number of general hospitals, filled almost to capacity and also the increase in the psychopathic wards in America, 75,000 beds for new patients a year, we question it, is this faster or forward?

In our home life in America today are we, as a nation, going faster or forward? The home is the economic, moral and spiritual unit of our country, said one of our recent statesmen. Do you know that America heads the list in all the civilized countries in the world for divorces? One-half of the delinquent children, government reports tell us, come from broken homes.

Also statistics have revealed that more money has been spent for automobiles in the last three and one-half years than has been spent for homes in the last 150 years. Where is the security of childhood if mortgaged by pleasure-seeking parents? The world is on wheels, we are going fast, but where? The future strength of America morally and spiritually lies in her homes, and her children.

HASKELL COUNTY'S
GOLDEN JUBILEE FAIR

OCT. 15-19, HASKELL, TEXAS

CELEBRATING THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF HASKELL COUNTY AND DEDICATED TO
THE PIONEERS OF HASKELL
COUNTY AND OF WEST TEXAS

The fair will be opened Wednesday, October 16th with a monster parade picturing the progress of transportation and giving special attention to the pioneers who first came to this section. Many of these pioneers have indicated their intention of entering the parade. After the parade is over the Jubilee will be formally opened by the Hon. J. E. McDonald, Com. of Agriculture and a member of the State Racing Com. The opening of the third annual Rice Springs Park race meet will immediately follow the address of Mr. McDonald.

The racing program of the Jubilee will include at least five races each day with purses of over $1500.00 for the victorious horsemen. Pari-mutual betting will be featured at this meet as it has been in the past under license from the State Racing Commission. Every effort is being made to put on a fast program of horse races with plenty of entertainment between races.

The Midway feature of the Jubilee will be Tidwell's Shows featuring their many rides, concessions and shows and including a free act every day. This act will consist of a fire dive of 100 feet. The Midway will also include the exhibits of live stock, poultry and agricultural products from Haskell and surrounding counties. With good crops this year these exhibits will be the best in years.

Among other features of the Jubilee will be a round robin football game on the night of Wednesday, October 16th. In this event the high school team of Rochester, Monday, Knox City and Aspermont will tangle in four quarters of furious action. This is an entirely new event and promises to be one of the best of the entire fair.

A second football game will be played on Friday night of the Jubilee when the Haskell Indians tangle with the Class A Abilene Eagles. This day has been designated as Abilene Day and the Abilene Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a special train to bring the Abilene fans, the high school team, pep squad and band to Haskell.

One of the feature days of the Jubilee will be Old Timers Day on Thursday. This day has been set aside as the day for the entertainment of the old settlers of Haskell and neighboring counties and the morning will find them entertained with a picnic and barbecue on the fair grounds. The principal address of the morning will be delivered by some prominent Texas figure. The Hon. James V. Allred has been invited for this and has indicated that he will be present unless prevented by some development of the legislature. In the afternoon the Old Timers program will merge with that of the races. Between races the old fiddlers will be given a chance to contest for prizes and a Style Show of the Nineties will be staged.

On Thursday night the Chisholm Trail Council of the Boy Scouts will produce a pageant picturing the progress and history of West Texas. Scouts from the eight counties of the Council will participate in the pageant as will many others making up the cast of the 250 under the direction of Mr. Ed Shumway of Abilene.

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

CARDUI

Again America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ, marshals his forces. Your family may be the next to be stricken!

Leading doctors tell us that fifty per cent of all disabling diseases start with a "common cold." A GOOD SHOT

A man wounded in the head was rushed to the hospital, where the doctor asked him how it happened.

"My wife threw a stone and hit me," murmured the man.

"Well, that's the first time I ever heard of a woman hitting anything she aimed at," said the doctor.

"Oh," said the patient wearily, "she was aiming at me. She was throwing at a dog and it was behind her."
